

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

CASE NO.: 4:19CV420 – WS/CAS

v.

CAMBRIDGE CAPITAL GROUP ADVISORS, LLC
(fka CAMBRIDGE CAPITAL ADVISORS, LLC),
PHILLIP TIMOTHY HOWARD, and
DON WARNER REINHARD,

Defendants.

MOTION TO REQUEST VOLUNTARY RECUSAL OF
HONORABLE JUDGE ROBERT HINKLE

COMES NOW, Defendant Don W. Reinhard, acting as pro se, and respectfully requests that Honorable Judge Robert Hinkle voluntarily dismiss himself from presiding over the above referenced case, and in good cause and support thereof states as follows :

1. Defendant Don W. Reinhard (Reinhard) plead guilty to various criminal charges in 2008 (United States v. Don W. Reinhard, case no. 08-cr-00049-RH-CAS).
2. Reinhard was sentenced by Honorable Judge Robert Hinkle in 2009.
3. Reinhard appealed various parts of the conviction and sentence in 2010 and the bank fraud conviction was overturned.
4. As a result, at the conclusion of Reinhard's hearing on an alleged violation of his supervised release in late 2014 or early 2015, Honorable Judge Robert Hinkle made the comment to Reinhard and his attorney that had he written the brief for the Appellate Court regarding the bank fraud conviction, he assured Reinhard that the outcome would have been far different.
5. Therefore, Reinhard believes that Honorable Judge Robert Hinkle has shown that he cannot be objective in presiding over any case regarding Reinhard and Reinhard has reasonable concerns that Honorable Judge Robert Hinkle will be "biased" against Reinhard in the above referenced case.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Don W. Reinhard respectfully requests that Honorable Judge Robert Hinkle voluntarily recuse himself from presiding over the above referenced case (Case No.: 4:19cv420 – WS/CAS) for the reasons provided.
